

Revision to Citibank Account Terms and Conditions effective 18 June 2021

We would like to inform you that the Citibank Account Terms and Conditions will be revised effective 18 June 2021:

- To assure you that Citi is transparent when delivering your rights to you as a financial consumer;
- To assure you that your rights and interests as a financial consumer are important to Citi; and
- As part of Citi's continuous effort to enhance and improve the delivery of services to our financial consumers.

The material changes are as below:

Page	Revision
82 & 83	Clause No.113 to No. 123 - Enhance clauses related to Recurring Citibank Debit & ATM Card ("Card") transactions Summary of clauses <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Provide more clarity on recurring Card transactions• If your Card has been replaced and your Card number and Card expiry date is changed as a result thereto, you must update your Card details with the Merchant.• Unless you have cancelled or changed the details as aforesaid or expressly informed us not to transfer your Recurring Card Instruction, you authorise us to, if we reasonably choose:<ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) to provide your replacement Card details to the Merchant to update the Recurring Card Instructions or tell the Merchant that your Card has been cancelled or the account has been closed; and/or(b) where the Card has been replaced, treat Recurring Card Instruction as applying to your replacement Card and/or expiry date (as the case may be); or both.• If the Bank does that, your card account will continue to be debited in accordance with Recurring Card Instruction except that your new replacement Card number and expiry date will be used (instead of that of the previous Card), to ensure the non-interruption of the Service and/or Card-on File Transaction regardless whether you have activated the replacement Card or not.

Please visit here to view the revised Citibank Account Terms and Conditions referred above.

For existing Citibank Account Terms and Conditions, please visit here.